I. PURPOSE

The purpose of this directive is to establish policy regarding the Division's crime prevention and community relation's efforts.

II. POLICY

This Division is committed to the perpetuation of Community Crime Prevention programs through the utilization of Problem-Oriented Policing. This commitment extends to an active partnership with the citizens of Prince George's County in reducing the opportunity for criminal activity within the Prince George's County park system. The responsibility for crime prevention and community relations is a shared one. Division personnel is the primary developers of programs to reduce or prevent crime. These programs will be designed to target both adults and juveniles. All members of the Division, sworn and civilian are responsible for ensuring that the programs achieve the desired results. This is accomplished through Problem-Oriented Policing, attending community meetings, and other enforcement and non-enforcement activities. Personnel is expected to actively participate in all aspects of Crime Prevention and Community Relations.

III. PROCEDURES

- A. Programs - All Division personnel will be responsible for the development, coordination, implementation, and evaluation of the Division's crime prevention programs. Programs will include, but are not limited to:

CRIME PREVENTION & COMMUNITY RELATIONS

PG320.0

1. Programs targeted by crime type and geographic area based on an analysis of local crime data; and
2. Programs targeted to address community perceptions of crime.
3. Programs designed to prevent and control juvenile delinquency will include but are not limited to: (i.e., C.O.P.S. Camp for Kids, Punt, Pass and Kick, Mentor programs, D.A.R.E., Safety Program, School Career Days.)

A program which, at a minimum, incorporates the following:

- 1) acting as a resource with respect to delinquency prevention;
  - 2) providing guidance on ethical issues in a classroom setting;
  - 3) providing individual counseling to students; and
  - 4) explaining the law enforcement role in society.
- a. Community recreational youth programs.
4. All programs will be periodically evaluated for effectiveness.
    - Juvenile programs will be reviewed annually, and a written evaluation of all enforcement and prevention programs relating to juveniles will be prepared. The evaluation should consider both the quantitative and qualitative elements of each program. As a result of the evaluation process, a decision will be made regarding whether a specific program will continue to function as is, be modified, or be discontinued.

B. Crime Prevention and Community Groups - The Division will when appropriate, assist in organizing crime prevention groups in areas targeted for such activity, and assist in establishing community groups where they are needed. To support these endeavors, the Division will:

1. Establish and maintain liaison with all interested and targeted crime prevention groups, community organizations, and other community groups;
2. Ensure that all personnel are aware that they are responsible for achieving the Division's community relations objectives;
3. Develop or improve Division policies and procedures that affect police and community relations as needed;
4. Publicize objectives, problems, and successes;
5. Convey relevant information received from citizens' organizations to all personnel; and
6. Identify Community Relations and Crime Prevention training needs through interviews with citizen representatives, consultations with those involved in internal investigations and conferences with supervisors.
