

Table of Contents

Executive Summary	1
Overview	5
Myths and Facts About Agriculture in Prince George’s County	6
Characteristics of Farms and Farmland	9
Comparison with Adjoining Counties	18
Equine Census	19
Summary of Interview Findings	20
Protecting Farmland	21
Smart Growth and Agriculture Connection	24
General Plan and Master Plans	24
Preserved Farmland in Prince George’s County and Adjoining Counties	26
Profitable Farming	27
Opportunities for Diversifying	27
Alternative Crops	27
Organic Farming	30
Horse Industry	30
Value-Added Agriculture	32
Agritourism	32
Aquaculture	33
Marketing Strategies	33
Community-Supported Agriculture (CSA)	33
Farmers’ Markets	34
U-Pick or Pick-Your-Own Operations	35
Rent-A-Tree Operations	35
Farm Stands or Roadside Stands	36
Cooperative Marketing	36
Sales to Restaurants and Specialty Food Stores	36
Internet Marketing	36
Farming at the Urban Edge	37
Challenges of Farming at the Urban Edge	38
Benefits of Farming at the Urban Edge	38
Recommendations	39
Promoting Agriculture as an Economic Development Tool	39
Educating and Organizing Farmers	39
Marketing	40
Promoting Agritourism	40
Farm Labor Development	40
Agriculture Friendly Regulations	40
Farmland Preservation	41
Appendix	42

List of Charts

Chart 1: Comparison of Value of Farmland and Buildings with Value of Agricultural Products Sold 9

Chart 2: Percent of Land in Farms in Selected Maryland Counties 18

Chart 3: Percent of Land Preserved in Selected Maryland Counties 26

List of Tables

Table 1: Agriculture in Prince George’s County 10

Table 2: Farm and Farmland in Selected Maryland Counties and the State of Maryland 18

Table 3: Maryland Equine Census 19

Table 4: Farmland Preserved Under Various Programs in Selected Maryland Counties 26

List of Maps

Map 1: Land Subject to Agricultural Use Assessment, 1992 14

Map 2: Land Subject to Agricultural Use Assessment, 2002 15

Map 3: 2002 Land Use/Land Cover 16

Map 4: 1991 Land Use/Land Cover 17

Map 5: Farming on the Edge—Maryland 23

Map 6: Prince George’s County Development Tiers 25